March 28, 2012 — The UIC School of Architecture is pleased to present Tales from the Crypt: Archived Material 1966-1996, a selection of disparate material deposited in the School of Architecture's archive over a thirty year period. Housed (until now) in the School's storage space on the first floor of the A+A Building, these varied materials—from syllabi and program posters to lecture recordings and party photos—reveal lost plots and forgotten stories, concerns at once dated and familiar. A found time capsule of fragments and miscellany, the material is assembled here as a first effort to codify, organize, reflect on, and make sense of the School of Architecture's history from what it, at one point, deemed worthy of saving.

Tales from the Crypt: Archived Material 1966-1996 opens to the public on Wednesday, April 4 from 6 to 8pm. Lectures from the archive will be available for download as .mp3 files from the School of Architecture's website upon the exhibition's opening. For more information, please contact Editor and Staff Associate Jayne Kelley at jkelle20@uic.edu or (312) 996-4809.
