

Architecture at Chicago

Master of Arts in Design Criticism Sample Class Schedule

Course times listed below represent a typical 2-year MAD-Crit schedule. However, specific course times and offerings may vary slightly from year to year. While this is a possible path toward completing the degree, there is some room for flexibility, particularly with electives.

First Year Fall		Meeting Time
Arch 587	Pro-Seminar I	Fri, 10:00am-12:45pm
Arch 531	Architectural Theory and History I	Tues/Th, 12:30-1:45pm
Arch 566 or Elective	Research Seminar or Approved Elective	Typically three-hour seminars; options may include Tues or Thurs morning/afternoon, Wed morning, Fri morning
Elective		Typically three-hour seminars; options may include Tues afternoon or morning, Thurs afternoon, Fri morning

First Year Spring		Meeting Time
Arch 588	Pro-Seminar II	Three-hour seminar; may be offered Tuesday, Thursday, or Friday morning
Arch 532 or Elective	Architecture Theory + History II or Approved Elective	Tues/Th, 12:30-1:45pm or three-hour seminar format
Arch 586	Architectural Theory and History IV	Th, 11:00am-1:45pm
Elective		Typically three-hour seminars; options may include Tues afternoon or morning, Thurs afternoon, Fri morning

Second Year Fall		Meeting Time
Arch 589	Writing Tutorial I	Arranged with faculty
Arch 566 or Elective	Research Seminar or Approved Elective	Typically three-hour seminars; options may include Tues or Thurs morning/afternoon, Wed morning, Fri morning
Elective		Typically three-hour seminars; options may include Tues afternoon or morning, Thurs afternoon, Fri morning

Second Year Spring		Meeting Time
Arch 590	Writing Tutorial II	Arranged with faculty
Arch 520	Architecture Theory Elective	Typically three-hour seminars; options may include Tues afternoon or morning, Thurs afternoon, Fri morning
AH 520	Art History Elective	